To Not Be Me

People see me but Im all smoke and mirrors keeping up this charade
I just wont ever fill the footsteps of my heros
Oh what a mess I've made
Oh what a mess I've made

I'd give anything to not be me right now
escape from my own shell
I'd give anything to not be me right now
pull a Houdini on myself

Blew all my saving and I used up all my best years let my true friends walk away despite the efforts to keep up appearances all too much for me to fake

escape from my own shell
I'd give anything to not be me right now
to not be me
to not be me
